The court has considered the Petition for Relief from Domestic Abuse and finds that a temporary protective order under Iowa Code section 236.4(2) is necessary to protect the protected party named above.

Therefore, the court ORDERS as follows:

1. Respondent shall not threaten, assault, stalk, molest, attack, harass, or otherwise abuse the protected party. Respondent shall not use, or attempt to use, or threaten to use physical force against the protected party that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury.

2. Respondent shall stay away from the protected party and shall not be in that party's presence except in a courtroom during court hearings.

3. Respondent shall not communicate with the protected party in person or through any means including third persons. This restriction shall not prohibit communication through legal counsel.

4. The protected party shall have exclusive possession of the residence located at Indianola, IA 50125

Respondent shall not go to, enter, occupy or remain in that residence or any other residence in which the protected party is staying, under any circumstance. Respondent shall turn over to the sheriff all devices that allow access or entry to the residence or outbuildings (for example, keys or garage openers). Respondent may enter the residence once in the company of a peace officer to retrieve respondent's clothing and work-related items. The law enforcement agency shall contact the protected party to provide notice of the intent of the respondent to return to the residence and to accommodate the safety concerns of the protected party.

☒ 5. If checked, the protected party shall have the right to exclusive use and possession of the 2000 Ford Ranger vehicle until further order of the court, and the sheriff shall take custody of respondent's keys to the vehicle upon service of this order. Sheriff will turn vehicle keys over to the protected party.

6. The protected party is granted temporary custody of these children (list names and ages): Gavin 5/4 (11-9-09)

If the children are not presently in the care of protected party, the children shall be returned to the protected party's custody at the following time and in the following manner: _____

Unless modified by order filed in this proceeding or in a juvenile court proceeding affecting the same children, this temporary order shall prevail over any other existing custody order. The issue of visitation will be addressed at the hearing mentioned below. Until such time, respondent shall not contact these children and shall not contact the protected party about visitation.

7. A RESPONDENT WHO VIOLATES THIS ORDER FACES IMMEDIATE ARREST. Violation may occur even if the protected party consents to conduct that is prohibited by this order. Only the court can relieve respondent from the restrictions contained in this order.

8. A hearing will be held on September 12th, 2011, at 1:30 o'clock p.m. at the Warren County Courthouse, Room 213, in Indianola, Iowa, to decide if a final protective order should be entered. Failure of the respondent to appear may result in a final protective order being entered against the respondent. Failure of the protected party to appear may result in the case being dismissed. Each party has the right to be represented by an attorney at this hearing. The parties shall bring copies of any existing child custody orders to the hearing.

9. The court finds, pursuant to Iowa Code section 236.10, that to protect the safety or privacy of the protected party and/or the protected party's children, the clerk of court shall until further order of the court (check any that apply)
